SEAN F. MCAVOY, CLERK

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
Plaintiff,

v.

TAYLOR THOMAS RAYNE SINCLAIR,
Defendant.

NO. 1:22-CR-02112-SAB-1

ORDER STRIKING TRIAL
DATE; SETTING DEADLINES

A pretrial conference was held on November 29, 2023, in Yakima, Washington. Defendant was present in the custody of the U.S. Marshals Service and was represented by Andrea George and Juliana Van Wingerden. The United States was represented by Michael Murphy and Courtney Pratten.

Pending before the Court were Defendant's Motions in Limine, ECF No. 53, and the United States' Motion to Continue Trial, ECF No. 59. At the hearing, the Court granted the United States' Motion to Continue, struck the trial date, and ordered the parties to confer regarding available trial dates, and provide those dates to the Court by December 4, 2023. The Court also set briefing deadlines. This Order memorializes the Court's oral ruling.

Accordingly, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

1. The United States' Motion to Continue Trial, ECF No. 59, is GRANTED.

2. The December 11, 2023 jury trial is STRICKEN. A new jury trial will be set after the parties provide the Court with available trial dates.

3. On or before December 4, 2023, the parties shall provide the Court with available trial dates, as well as available dates for pretrial hearings to address Defendant's Motions in Limine and any Daubert motions.

4. On or before January 5, 2024, the United States shall disclose the body camera footage it intends to use at trial.

5. On or before January 19, 2024, any Daubert motions shall be filed.

6. Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A), the time between December 11, 2023, the current trial date, until the new trial date, to be determined, is DECLARED EXCLUDABLE for purposes of computing time under the Speedy Trial Act. The Court finds that the ends of justice served by such a continuance outweigh the public's and Defendant's interest in a speedy trial.

IT IS SO ORDERED. The District Court Executive is hereby directed to enter this Order and furnish copies to counsel.

DATED this 30th day of November 2023.
